"Outside show is a poor substitute for inner worth."

-Aesop

Appearance is not everything, but it does tell the world how I feel about myself. As my days of abstinence increase, my appearance improves.

Before OA, physical attractiveness presented problems I didn't want to deal with. As I practice the steps of the program, these problems diminish. I gain spiritual fitness, mental health and physical wellbeing. Giving one hundred percent of myself to the tasks before me each day, and applying the principles of the program in all my affairs drives out both the obsession with food and the preoccupation with my looks. I lose weight without making it my primary goal.

For today: OA promises me threefold recovery as a result of working the program to the best of my ability. This is the only way I know to attain both outer attractiveness and inner worth.

Pinellas OA Pride PIPO Event

June 23, 2019 - The PIPO Committee and fellows rocked the St. Pete Pride Festival. We organized an OA outreach booth with resources such as the 15 Questions (Are You A Compulsive Overeater?), meeting lists, pamphlets, and informational contact cards. We had 9 fellows offer fabulous service and experience, strength, and hope (ESH). One-half of the fellows were there the entire day. Set-up on our corner spot and parking were such gifts. There were over 6 blocks of vendors. Traffic flow trickled for the first hour ... Then ... WOW!

The community came out with beautiful support. While there, we had over 150 people come up to the table for information with a wide reach of people who needed it for themselves, family members, friends, wellness and mental health professionals, and other 12-step program participants. We answered their questions with our ESH, compassion, and acceptance. So wonderful to share with them they are not alone.

Some had no knowledge of OA at all. Participants were gracious for the information; and comforted to be heard. Meeting lists and the 15 Questions were big hits. Cards were great for portability. We gave away over 150 give-aways and hundreds of stickers (Bubbles, Chalk, Stickers, Clay). Bubbles were the top choice followed by stickers. Having the corner spot, we drew a big WELCOME in front of our booth and throughout the day participants wrote and drew inspirational affirmations, slogans, and pictures.

We had a law firm next to us with a lively photo booth, which sparked energy and some traffic. Our volunteer fellows had the chance to view the other vendors and share the OA message as well as learn about their organization's services. We even had someone come to us to invite us for another PIPO opportunity the following week. A shout out for our amazing volunteers for their beautiful service and communication from start to finish in the St. Pete Pride event process. The joy and success meter on this St. Pete Pride event was over the top.

Community Rise Up Event

June 29, 2019 - The PIPO Committee, after an invite while at St. Pete's Pride Festival, participated in a Community Rise Up Event supporting Sweetwater Organic Farms. On the Farm's premises, we organized and set-up an OA outreach booth with resources such as the 15 Questions (Are You A Compulsive Overeater?), meeting lists, pamphlets, informational contact cards, and farm related activities for children. We had 3 fellows offer fabulous service and experience, strength, and hope (ESH)! There were a dozen or so vendors. We were the only 12-Step Program participating. This event was in association with Sober Nightlife. Although traffic flow trickled while we there, we had meaningful connections and awareness. We were able to connect and share ESH with those who needed it for themselves, parents, and medical professionals.

We also connected with possible future PIPO opportunities. We answered their questions with our ESH, compassion, and acceptance. A medical professional was happy to have information available for his patients. Our volunteer fellows had the chance to view the other booths and share the OA message as well as learn about their organization's or business' services. During the event, the emcee highlighted What is OA? from our pamphlet as a PSA for attendees. We "planted and farmed" great OA awareness. Sweet job OA fellows!

The 2020 WSBC will be held in Albuquerque, NM from April 20-25 at the Embassy Suites Albuquerque Hotel. Registration will open in September 2019. Service bodies interested in applying for Delegate Support Funds can download the application and instructions on oa.org under "Frequently Used Documents."
